Harding University, Jostens, and their representatives who sponsor the workshop take every reasonable precaution to ensure a safe, fun and beneficial experience for your child. Responsibility for individual conduct, however, must ultimately lie with each individual. Each student must behave in an appropriate manner during the workshop. Each student will be given a copy of the Rules of Conduct before the workshop begins and is expected to abide by them. Infraction of the rules will result in immediate dismissal from the workshop without refund of fees. The parent or legal guardian is responsible for the student's transportation from the workshop should he/she be dismissed. No student will be allowed to attend without this form appropriately signed.

I hereby grant permission to _____, a student at _____ to attend the Harding University/Jostens Yearbook Workshop on July 22-24, 2019. I/we the parent(s) or legal guardian of the applicant do hereby release and forever discharge Harding University and Jostens Publishing and other officers, agents and employees from any and all claims, demands, actions, or causes of action on account of damages to personal property or personal injury, which may result from causes beyond the control of, without the fault or negligence of Harding University of Jostens, their officers, agents or employees, during the Jostens Yearbook Workshop at Harding University. I have read the above information and hereby give permission for necessary medical attention to be administered to the above-named. I understand that the emergency contact will be notified as soon as such communication can be made. I also understand that my child may be photographed during the course of this workshop and may be featured on the registration website www.yearbookauthority.com for workshop promotional purposes and that I must submit notification in writing should I wish my child not to be featured on the website.
